LAURA GRAUER

Laura Grauer primarily practises in public and administrative law areas.

She essentially develops her activities in the field of public procurement (advisor in public procurement matters and litigations) and, more broadly public contracts (PPP's, PFI's...).

In her public procurement practice, she assists contracting authorities as well as economic operators in the design and drafting of tenders, the award and the execution of procurement contracts whether they pertain to work, supplies or services. Laura represents clients in public and administrative litigation procedures.

Her legal practice covers as well town planning and environmental law, especially in matters pertaining to the energy sector, in which she assists and defends major operators of the sector.

She equally focuses on financial public law, with an emphasis on advising public and private operators in various interdisciplinary matters, such as public procurement of financial services (loans, derivatives, etc).

She regularly litigates before the Council of State, the Constitutional Court, as well as Judiciary Courts.

Laura is an assistant lecturer in Constitutional Law and Fundamental Freedoms at the Université Libre de Bruxelles.

Laura Grauer is ranked as a Rising Star in Real Estate by The Legal 500.

Master of laws (ULB, 2010)

LL.M. in European law (King's College London, 2011)

Member of the Brussels Bar since 2011
